About Coach Hanley... Pat Hanley earned three varsity letters as catcher at Gettysburg College and continued his career professionally, playing two seasons for the Kalamazoo Kings of the Frontier League. Pat then took a coaching position with the Captiales des Quebec of the Can-Am League in 2011, helping lead the team to a championship season. After retiring from professional baseball, Pat took a position teaching and coaching baseball at his alma mater, Nichols School in Buffalo, New York. Pat is currently attending law school, and is an instructor and Bulldog trainer at the B.A.T. Cage.
